

6th National AICUF Convention Report

Date: 16th, 17th, 18th May 2025

Venue: Loyola College Chennai

Theme "Students in pursuit of change: embrace, Encourage, Engage"

After a gap of five years, the 6th National Convention of AICUF was held from 16th to 18th May 2025 at the prestigious Loyola College, Chennai. The convention focused on the theme: "Students in Pursuit of changes: Embrace, Encourage and Engage."

Which calls on young minds to play an active role in bringing about social transformation.

Distinguished dignitaries at the convention included:

- Justice Kurian Josheph
- Most Rev. Joseph Gonsalves (Archbishop)
- Mrs. Rao
- Fr. Benjamin Kujur S.J.

They led powerful sessions highlighting the importance of the AICUF constitution, social justice, youth leadership, and AICUF's rich historical journey.

From Simdega unit, three students participated:

- Deepica Lakra
- Amardeep Kullu
- Nilima Bando

Our Experience (by the three students):

This convention was a powerful and eye-opening experience. The theme truly resonated with us- we felt inspired to embrace the idea of change, encourage others in the process, and actively engage with our communities.

Fr. Benjamin Kujur's session was especially impactful; helping us understand the deeper mission of AICUF as a student movement for justice and transformation. We returned to become change agents in our capacities.
