

SXCS/BP-22

Tribal Culture and Games

1. Title of the Best Practice

Tribal Culture and Games

2. The Context

Students need to live their culture and sports that have been life style of the district. Culture and games give them the unique identity make self-known and live life with dignity.

3. Objectives of the Practice

Objectives of this practice are:

- To give them an opportunity to involve oneself in one's culture and tradition.
- To make them to be rooted in their interests.
- To ensure that that they have life a head to understand life better.

4. The Practice

- Tribal fests are organised to participate and relive the tradition and culture, local games (Hocky) and sports.
- Encouraging students to attend different sports and cultural fest,

5. Advantages

- Enhanced cultural values and personal talents in games and sports.

6. Challenges

- To find proper forum to available in the field who is interested to grow.

7. Evidences of Success

- Students participate local and national level of fest competition organised by the local authorities.

8. Resources Required

- Finance to equipped oneself for games and sports.
- Proper mechanism and monitoring system to enhance oneself.
- Government support to promote culture and games.