Opening and Objective

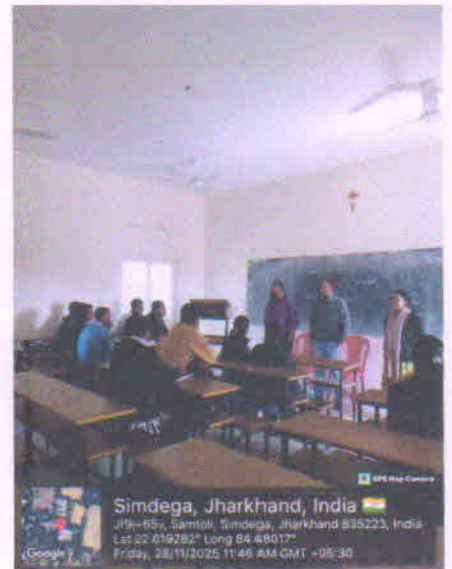

The meeting was called to order by Asst. Prof Ishan Tiru, Head of the Department. He extended a warm welcome to the faculty members and the Class Representatives. The primary objective of the meeting was twofold:

- i. To review and celebrate the department's recent achievements in Xavier Utsav 'Samridhi' and the 6th Annual Day;
- ii. To discuss the new plan of action for the upcoming academic session, with a strong emphasis on strengthening departmental unity.

Review of Recent Successes

The HOD formally congratulated the student representatives on the department's outstanding performance at Xavier Utsav 'Samridhi' and the 6th Annual Day celebrations.

- Xavier Utsav 'Samridhi': It was noted that the department's participation was highly commendable. Students secured first position in group dance, second in group song, second and third prize in speech and debate respectively; Miss Xavier was crowned from the Department of Political Science. The performance in street dance, though, did not win any prize, but it was clear that they were the crowd favourites.
- 6th Annual Day: The HOD acknowledged the collective effort of the students in organizing and participating in the events, which reflected the discipline and talent of the Political Science department.

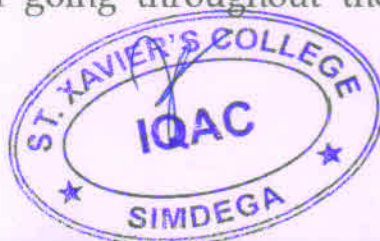

The faculty members present—Dr. Nisha Rani Dhanwar and Prof. Roshan Kishor Gidh added their appreciation, noting that such successes are a direct result of the students' hard work and cohesive spirit.

CR Feedback and Open Forum

The HOD opened the floor to the Class Representatives to share feedback and opinions regarding the recent events and the general academic environment.

- General Sentiment: The CRs expressed gratitude for the faculty's support during the College Fest.
- Suggestions:
 - Semester VI CRs suggested organizing more intra-departmental competitions to keep the momentum going throughout the year, rather than only during

- Semester III CRs highlighted the need for better communication channels regarding event schedules to avoid clashes with academic deadlines.
- Semester I CR (as the newest batch) requested more orientation regarding the department's legacy and past achievements to foster pride and integration.

The faculty assured the students that these points would be taken into consideration while planning future calendars.

New Plan of Action and Emphasis on Unity

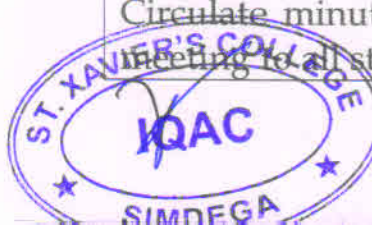

The core of the discussion revolved around the future trajectory of the department. The HOD, Prof Ishan Tiru, stressed the following key points:

- Unity as a Cornerstone: It was emphasized that the department's success hinges on the unity among all semesters. The senior students were encouraged to mentor the juniors, creating a legacy of support and camaraderie. "We are not just different batches; we are one department," Prof Tiru stated.
- Academic Excellence: The plan includes introducing more interactive learning methods, including guest lectures by alumni and political analysts.
- Extension Activities: The department plans to adopt a village/community for outreach programs, allowing students to apply their academic knowledge to real-world socio-political issues.
- Skill Development: Future meetings will focus on workshops for research methodology and public speaking to enhance the employability and academic rigor of the students.

Dr Nisha Rani Dhanwar added that the faculty will be more accessible for guidance, and Prof Roshan Kishor Gidh encouraged the CRs to act as bridges between the faculty and the student body to ensure a smooth flow of information.
