

Outcome Based Education (OBE)

Geography (PO, PO, PSOs)

Program Objective

1. Become more socially and environmentally sensitive, well informed, potential and more responsible as global citizens.
2. To grow in holistic thinking across social and natural sciences, arts and humanities, regional and world; and exploring the inter links between them.
3. Develops a wide range of skills, some subject-specific, and others more general e.g. interpretation, analysis, communication etc. Together, these skills provide a strong basis for employability, lifelong learning and making a positive difference in the society.
4. Provide the intellectual foundations, tools and practical experiences to develop enhanced empathy, insight and integrate approach to evaluate evidences in the creation of innovative, inclusive and equitable solutions.

Program Outcome

1. Provide explanation of definitions, relevant terms and concept of geography.
2. Provide better explanation about relevant principles, theories and models in geography.
3. Provide idea about detail knowledge regarding man and environmental process.
4. Know the importance of spatio-temporal scale.
5. Know the relation or complex nature between physical and human environments.
6. Identify the importance of places, environment and people.
7. Understand how processes bring changes in systems and its distribution.

8. Collection, representation and Interpretation of geographical data and sources.
9. Presentation of geographical evidence and ideas with identifying geographical trends and patterns.
10. Application of the cartographical techniques to support the inferences of geographical aspects.
11. Critically evaluate the basics of geography.
12. Assess the effects of geographical processes and its impact on physical and human environments.
13. Assess how the viewpoints of different groups of people, potential conflicts of interest and other factors interact in the management of physical and human aspects.
14. Evaluate the relative success or failure of initiatives.

Program Specific Outcomes (PSOs)

1. Evaluate how natural events have been influencing since from Historical period to recent on physical and human geographic factors in local, regional, national, and global settings.
2. Examine social and environmental processes, on space and place, particularly focuses on critical theory, practical application, analysis and intervention in chosen field within the discipline of Geography.
3. The programme will build a sound geographical base to the students as the result they can get ready for preparing all kinds of competitive exams
4. The specially designed curriculum will make an individual as an intelligent, and as a decision-making member or holding leadership in diverse teams, and in multidisciplinary settings.
5. The imparting knowledge by this programme will have an in-depth understanding of and mastery of the literature in, at least one particular geographic subfield.
6. This programme will create a sense of awareness and socially responsible citizen among the students towards the conserving natural environment.

7. The Programme will make each and every student as evaluator of emerging global issues as accurately and find out the possible solutions to persistent and contemporary,
8. As a student of Geography Course, they will be capable to develop their observation power through field experience and in future, they will be able to identify the socio-environmental problems of a locality
9. The programme will enhance research oriented rational ideology students.
10. A geographer has better job opportunities in Union and State Government departments, as a Cartographer, a Researcher, a teacher, a professor, appearing in Competitive Examinations, to become a government employer, a GIS specialist, a Climatologist, a Transportation Planner, a surveyor, and GPS consultant.